MUSICAL TREAT
PROMISED LOCAL PEOPLE MAY 23

The Great Creator and His Wonderful Band of Talented Musicians Will Soon Appear in This City.

An event in the musical world of this city will be the appearance of Sig. Creator and his band May 23. If Creator could describe it for which emanates from him when he takes the baton he might be able to answer the question: What is genius? No one can tell what it is, but everyone feels that Creator has it. The spirit of it travels over the house, electrifies every member of the band and makes people in the audience shiver with pleasure and tremble with appreciation.

The Asheville Citizen last February said: "Wizard of the baton is great Creator. Musical triumph last night at the auditorium. Peerless leader proves claim that he has the finest band in the world. Proving beyond all question his claim to superiority the great Creator delighted two large audiences in the auditorium yesterday afternoon and evening. It was no exaggeration to state that no band artist who has ever visited Asheville created such a lasting and favorable impression as did this magnificent leader of a matchless organization. While Creator has mannerisms decidedly individual, he is magnetic and passionate and his fervent spirit communicated itself to his players and to his audience. His band rendered a musical program of the highest excellence and of wide range. Brasses and reeds vied with each other in rare phrasing and delicate expression, and the audience was at times carried away by the emotion of the music which mounted to the dome of the big auditorium."

TODAY AND TOMORROW AT PASTIME THEATER

No more powerful sermon was ever preached than "The Clemenceau Case." No more vivid, pulsing drama was ever written than "The Clemenceau Case." No more wonderful photograph than "The Clemenceau Case," as pictured by William Fox, president of the Fox Film corporation, and starring Theda Bara. "The Vampire Woman" has ever been beheld upon the screen. These statements are made without reservation. Like a mighty river the story of the drama rushes strong and swift to its catastrophic climax. Passions flare, and wills clash throughout the production in a way that grips the spectator, holding him breathless in his chair till the last great scene is reached and the wild-night overwhelming story of "The Clemenceau Case" is brought to its tremendous end.

At the Pastime theater today and Monday. Admission, 10 cents for adults; children, 5 cents. Time of show: 1, 2, 26, 3, 40, 5, 6, 20, 7, 35, 8, 45 and 10 p. m.

F. ROMERO,

DEMPWOLF FAILS
TO FURNISH BOND
IN COURT'S TIME

No Bail Forthcoming at End of Time Until When Commitment Was Withdrawn; May Furnish It Tomorrow.

By the expiration of the time set by the district court, until when the commitment of Theodore Dempwolf was to be withdrawn last night, the former restaurant keeper had not furnished bond; it was not regarded as likely, however, that the commitment would be enforced if Dempwolf was able to give bond by tomorrow. Judge Raynolds fixed Dempwolf's bail for remaining at liberty pending the decision upon the appeal, which, it is said, his attorneys intend to make for $2,000—the sum under which he was released pending his trial in the district court on the kidnapping charge. If Dempwolf is unable to furnish the $2,000 it will not prevent his making appeal. John Sumner was attorney for the contestants.

Alameda Case Decided.

At the close of the arguments of the attorneys in the Alameda election contest case, Judge Raynolds yesterday announced his decision in favor of the contestants—Miguel Trujillo, democratic candidate for justice, and Juan Carabal, democratic candidate for constable. The court received Reference Bob Crews' report Friday and took additional evidence.

The county commissioners upon the face of the return had declared the republican candidates, Camilo Lucero for constable and Alfredo Sandoval for justice elected, and they have been serving since soon after the election. Trujillo and Carabal filed their bonds with County Clerk Walker immediately after the court's decision. The probate judge will have to approve the justice's bond and the county commissioners the constable's.

Judge Raynolds signed the final decree in the case of Atangio Lobato against Donatiano Lobato et al. to quiet title to lot 18 and the west one-half of lot 17, block 1, Atlantic & Pacific addition. The plaintiff was declared sole owner.

Nuñez Case Further Complicated.

Mrs. Victoria Sanchez, of Martintown, yesterday made application to the probate court to be appointed guardian of Clorinda Nuñez. The girl, who is over 19 years old, joined in the petition. The application will be heard by Probate Judge John Baron Burg.

Mrs. Sanchez is grandmother of the girl. The application adds another chapter to Mrs. Ofelia Nuñez' fight to regain control of her daughters, Clorinda, and her younger sister, Niña. The girls came here from their home at Trinidad to visit their grandmother. They refused to return home and the mother filed a complaint which was dismissed. Then the younger child decided to go back, but not so with Clorinda.

The mother filed a second complaint, Justice Craig acting under this understanding that Clorinda would go to Trinidad and that the county judge would investigate the case. The grandmother's application, however, probably upset this arrangement, although whether it did, could not be learned last night.
